

Feedback from provider survey of patients

Reasons why patients request referral to the homeopathy service:

- unable to take conventional drugs for their condition e.g. side effects or contraindications
- when conventional treatment is not clear or felt to relieve condition
- patient choice

The service reviewed 86 patients between 2013 and 2015, who provided this feedback about their health following treatment

In previous consultation, almost no public feedback on homeopathy.